

George Martell

photojournalist

Level One Coverage

The photographer of choice by many of Boston's top media professionals in planning their own wedding, George Martell conveys on film the excitement of a wedding with a uniquely sensitive style. Rather than rigidly posing each photograph, Mr. Martell captures the natural, spontaneous moments of the wedding day with artistry and sensitivity, and together with the essential traditional images, he is able to produce a concise photographic narrative of the day.

Basing his design on the bride's own selection from his photographs, he carefully selects the size and lay-out of each individual album to relate the story of the wedding day as only a true working photojournalist could .

A superior quality standard complements Martell's distinctive style. Each photograph is printed with the utmost care to bring out the brilliance and depth of color. Each George Martell photographic print is sealed with a fine lacquer to ensure its lasting beauty.

Using select leather and employing old world binding techniques, each wedding album is worked entirely by hand to his exacting standards. These exquisite one-of-a-kind heirloom albums are custom tooled, gilded, and lettered.
